

Hormones Worksheet

Directions: Fill in the following table with the endocrine organ the hormones are produced by and where in the body the hormone is supposed to go.

Hormone	Secreting Gland	Target Location or Tissue Type
Insulin
Progesterone
Estrogen
Growth Hormone
Adrenaline
Antidiuretic Hormone
Testosterone
Aldosterone
Melatonin
Oxytocin
Thyroxine

Directions: Using the list provided, match the hormones with their functions.

oxytocin                  insulin                  estrogen          growth hormone      antidiuretic hormone testosterone          adrenaline      cortisone          melatonin                  progesterone thyroxine                  luteinizing hormone                  follicle stimulating hormone

Hormone	Function
	Stimulates development of the ovarian follicle
	Stimulates milk let down
	Controls blood glucose levels
	Influences the rate of growth and development of young animals
	Stimulates the growth of long bones
	Stimulates absorption of water from the kidney tubule
	Influences the development of sexual maturity
	Stimulates the development of the corpus luteum
	Stimulates the development of female sexual characteristics
	Stimulates the development of the male sexual characteristics
	Affect glucose, protein, and fat metabolism
	Prepares the lining of the uterus for pregnancy
	Prepares the body for emergency situations